NEW BOOK AT COUNTY LIBRARY

Boon Island, by Kenneth Roberts. On this bleak hump of rock (Boon Island) there is a shipwreck —and fourteen men watch, pray and curse as their ship is pounded to pieces by cliff-high waves and violent winds. What happens to these unforgetable fourteen in the winter of 1710 is the story Kenneth Roberts tells in his brilliant new novel of survival. Boon Island sweeps from the gaiety of London theatre life through an intrigue-ridden voyage to a stirring climax marked by agony, hope, despair and courage. Here is a book that is completely different from anything that Roberts has ever written, that is destined to take its place on the shelf of American classics. Other novels by Roberts in the library are: Lydia Bailey; Arundel; Captain Caution; Lively Lady; Northwest Passage, and Trending Into Maine.
